Gentlemen:-

Wm
As per your order of the 28th ult., I have sent you a copy of Spanish Songs of Old California with bill at 1/5 off. You are right-- I am glad to give this discount to the Trade.

I could do considerably better ff you would take a quantity. The book has not been off the press a year yet, but without Trade facilities, it is selling in its 5th thousand.
Further, it is a book which will be standard, being genuine Folksongs of a high and appealing quality, in accurate and authentic version, and notable variety.
The universal awakening of interest in all things Spanish, will help; but the intrinsic quality of the songs will carry them for many years.

Yours Sincerely,

DrL/GK
